

NELL K. WILLIAMS, B. S., D. C.

Education:

- Graduate of Lees McRae College – 1947
- Graduate of Palmer Chiropractic College – 1956

Dr. Nell K. Williams has lived in Cobb County, Georgia, for more than sixty years and practiced chiropractic in Austell, Georgia. After graduating from Palmer Chiropractic College, she and her husband, Dr. Sid E. Williams, owned and managed over twenty chiropractic clinics in the Atlanta area. In 1974, she and Dr. Sid founded Life Chiropractic College, which later became Life University, the largest chiropractic college in the world.

Public Service:

- Cobb Chamber of Commerce
- Cobb Executive Women
- Quota Club of Atlanta
- Atlanta Chamber of Commerce
- The Atlanta Women's Chamber of Commerce
- Boy Scouts of America

Awards:

- “Woman of Achievement Award:” Presented to Dr. Nell by the Fulton/DeKalb Chapter of the Business & Professional Women in 1978-79 in recognition of her outstanding community efforts.
- “Woman Chiropractor of the Year Award:” Presented to Dr. Nell by her alma mater, Palmer College of Chiropractic, in 1981 in recognition of her extraordinary contributions to her profession.
- “Distinguished Fellow of the International Chiropractors Association Award:” Presented to Dr. Nell in 1980 for her outstanding service to this international organization.
- “Woman of the Decade Award:” Presented to Dr. Nell by the International Chiropractors Association for her life-long dedication to the organization and the chiropractic profession.
- ‘WALL OF TOLERANCE AWARD:’ Presented to Dr. Nell by the National Campaign for Tolerance signed by Rosa Parks.

Dr. Nell K. Williams is a partner and Executive Officer of D. E. International, which she co-founded with Dr. Sid Williams.

In 1966, Dr. Nell co-founded the Life Foundation, Inc. a non-profit organization dedicated to support chiropractic research, education and service on a worldwide basis.

She authored the “Basic Chiropractic Assistant’s Textbook” and teaches these proven procedures at the D. E. International meetings.

Dr. Nell has always been active in local, state, and national politics and is a Charter Member of the Georgia Council of Chiropractic. She is listed in WHO’S WHO In Chiropractic International.

She served as Senior Vice President and Dean of Student Affairs for Life University until she retired in 2002. Dr. Nell was married to Dr. Sid E. Williams for over sixty years, is the mother of two children, Dr.

Kimbrough Williams and Dr. John Sidney Williams, both of whom are graduates of Life University. She and Dr. Sid have three grandsons.